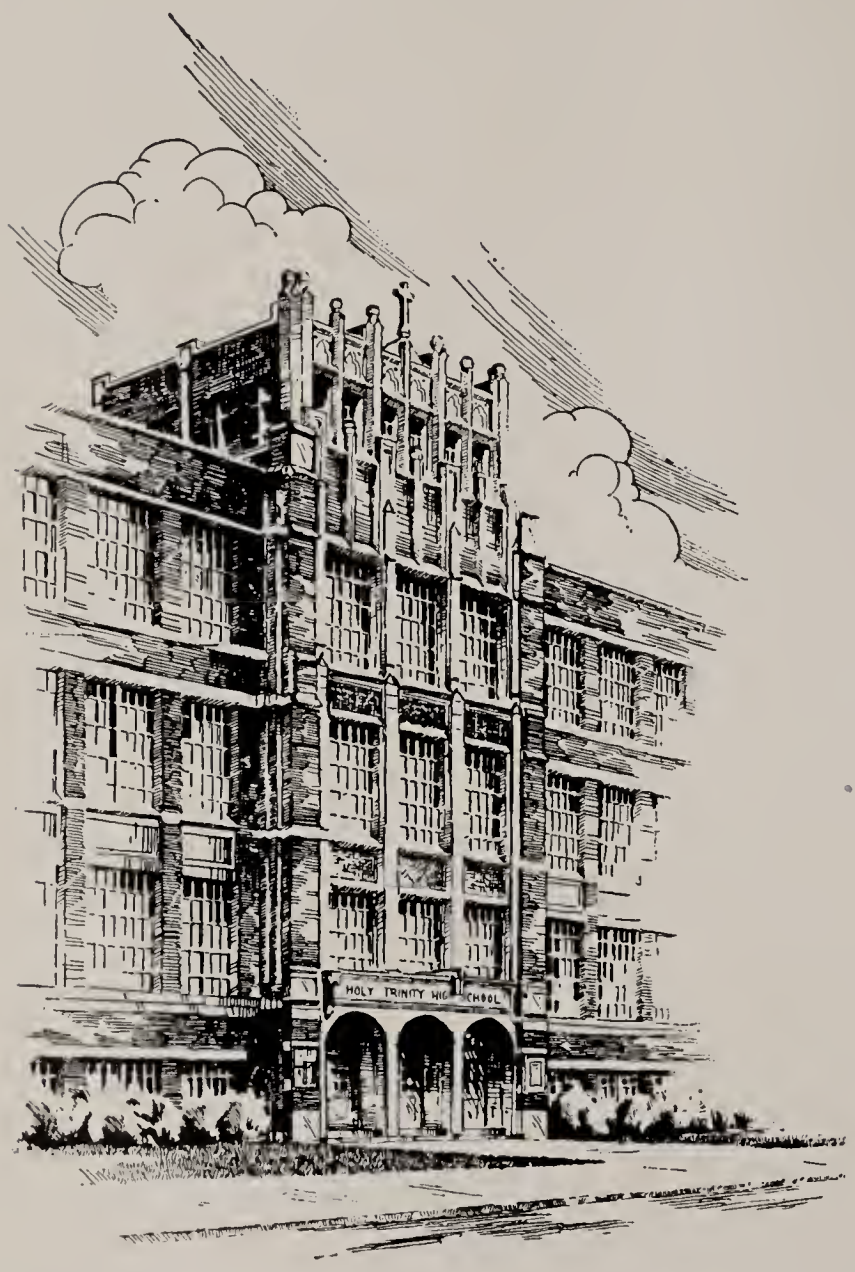
"THE CHRISTIAN EDUCATION OF YOUTH"

Based upon the encyclical, Divini Illius Magistri, of His Holiness of blessed memory, Pope Pius XI



MEMORIES OF HIGH SCHOOL DAYS

REVIEWED IN THE 1949

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT NUMBER OF

The GOLD • AND • BLUE

LET THIS BOOK be like an old friend you can sit down with . . . and think of the people you knew and the things you did way, way back in '49. Every year, anytime in May, yearbooks are passed out in schools all over the land, yearbooks which tell of the vibrant activities taking place in those schools. Perhaps the most feverish activity of all is "getting out the yearbook." Faculty advisers, business managers, and editors lose their hair, friends, sleep, and good graces. We are no exception. But if we succeed in adequately producing here a memory book of your high school days, then we say that it was well worth it, and we'd do it again . . . for you.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION OF YOUTH

Venerable Brethren and Beloved Children

Health and Apostolic Benediction

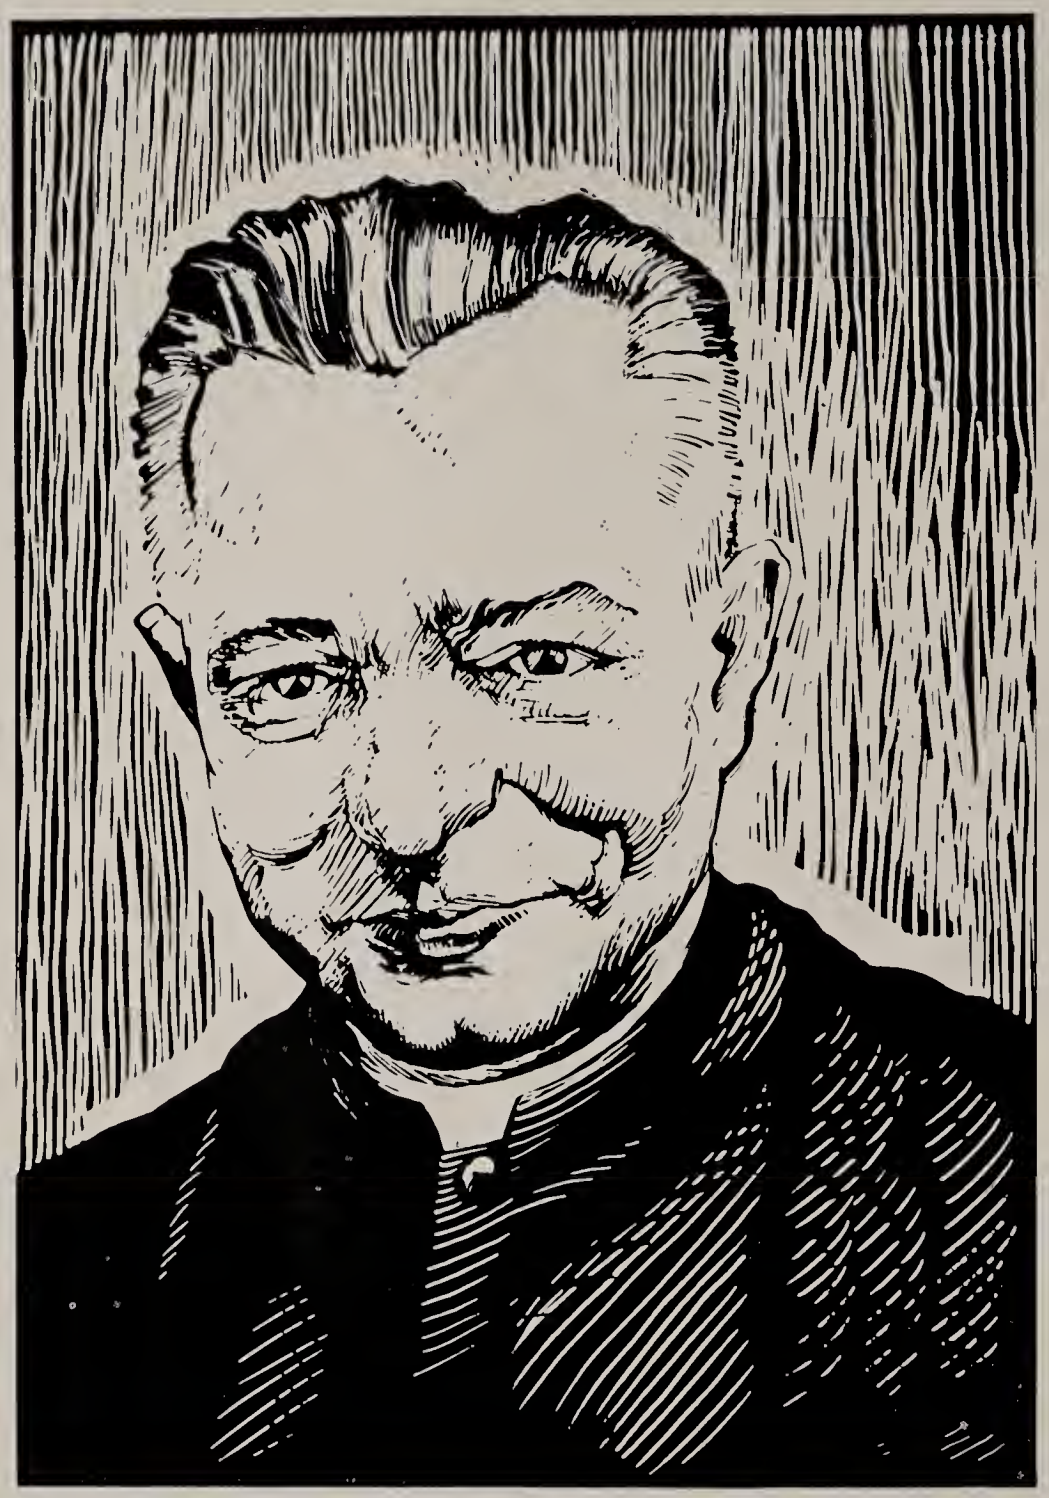
REPRESENTATIVE on earth of that Divine Master Who while embracing in the immensity of His love all mankind, even unworthy sinners, showed nevertheless a special tenderness and affection for children, and expressed Himself in those singularly touching words: "Suffer the little children to come unto Me." We also on every occasion have endeavored to show the predilection wholly paternal which We bear towards them, particularly by our assiduous care and timely instruction with reference to the Christian education of youth.

Reasons for Treating of Christian Education

. . . men, created by God, to His image and likeness and destined for Him who is infinite perfection, realize today more than ever amid the most exuberant material progress, the insufficiency of earthly goods to produce true happiness, either for the individual or for nations. And hence they feel more keenly themselves the impulse towards a perfection that is higher, which impulse is implanted in their rational nature by the Creator Himself. This perfection they seek to acquire by means of education. — Pope Pius XI.

Dedicated . . .

TO THE MEMORY OF



BROTHER GEORGE, C.S.C.

Whose ruggedness in practice of virtue was for thirty years an inspiration to Trinity students.

May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God
Rest in Peace

Perfect schools are the result not so much of good methods as of good teachers, teachers who are thoroughly prepared and well-grounded in the matter they have to teach; who possess the intellectual and moral qualifications required by their important office; who cherish a pure and holy love for the youths confided to them; because they love Jesus Christ and His Church, of which these are the children of predilection; and who have therefore sincerely at heart the true good of family and country. Indeed it fills our soul with consolation and gratitude towards the Divine Goodness to see, side by side with Religious men and women engaged in teaching, such a large number of excellent lay teachers . . . All these labor unselfishly with zeal and perseverance in what St. Gregory Nazienzen calls "The art of arts and the science of sciences": the direction and formation of youth. — Pope Pius XI.

Students and graduates of Holy Trinity High School will always be grateful for the privilege of having been taught by the Brothers of Holy Cross. Founded in France in 1820 as "The Brothers of St. Joseph," this order was the first community of Brothers to establish itself in the United States when, in 1842, six Brothers and one priest set up a small college in the wilderness of northern Indiana. This college, like the community which founded it, expanded until today it is one of the finest Catholic institutions of higher learning in the world: the University of Notre Dame.

It is at this great center of culture and learning that the members of our faculty are trained for their important office. Since the greatness of Notre Dame is the glory of Holy Cross, we students who have been taught by Holy Cross men have imbibed those intangible qualities that go to make up greatness. For this, we shall always be grateful to our teachers, those splendid men of character: the Brothers of Holy Cross.

BROTHER REGINALD, C.S.C.
Principal

Hence every form of pedagogic naturalism which in any way excludes or overlooks supernatural Christian formation in the teaching of youth, is false. Every method of education founded, wholly or in part, on the denial or forgetfulness of original sin and of grace, and relying on the sole powers of human nature, is unsound. Such, generally speaking, are those modern systems bearing various names which appeal to a pretended self-government and unrestrained freedom on the part of the child, and which diminish or even suppress the teacher's authority and action, attributing to the child an exclusive primacy of initiative, and an activity independent of any higher law, natural or Divine, in the work of his education.

Religion THROUGH WHICH WE LEARN OUR RELATIONS TO GOD

. . . since education consists essentially in preparing man for what he must be and for what he must do here below, in order to attain the sublime end for which he was created, it is clear that there can be no true education . . . no ideally perfect education, which is not Christian education. — Pope Pius XI.

Science THROUGH WHICH WE EXPLORE THE MYSTERIES OF GOD'S CREATION

The Church, therefore, far from hindering the pursuit of the arts and sciences, fosters and promotes them in many ways. For she is neither ignorant nor unappreciative of the many advantages which flow from them to mankind. On the contrary she admits that just as they come from God, Lord of all knowledge, so too if rightly used with the help of His grace, they lead to God. — Divini Illius.

Social Studies

THROUGH WHICH WE LEARN OUR RELATIONS TO MANKIND

Brother Eudes conducts a review in American History

The more closely the temporal power of a nation aligns itself with the spiritual, and the more it fosters and promotes the latter, by so much the more it contributes to the conservation of the commonwealth. For it is the aim of ecclesiastical authority by the use of spiritual means, to form good Christians in accordance with its own particular end and object; and in doing this it helps at the same time to form good citizens, and prepares them to meet their obligations as members of a civil society. This follows of necessity because in the City of God, the Holy Roman Catholic Church, a good citizen and an upright man are absolutely one and the same thing. — Pope Pius XI.

Language and Literature

THROUGH WHICH WE LEARN THE GLORIES OF OTHER TIMES, OTHER PEOPLES

In such a school (in harmony with the Church and the Christian family) the study of the vernacular and of classical literature will do no damage to moral virtue. There the Christian teacher will imitate the bee, which takes the choicest part of the flower and leaves the rest . . . In accepting the new, the Christian teacher will not hastily abandon the old, which the experience of centuries has found expedient and profitable. This is especially true of Latin. . .

Commerce

IN WHICH WE ARE TRAINED FOR TWENTIETH CENTURY METHODS

To be the proper place for Catholic students, it is necessary that the whole organization of the school, and its teachers, syllabus, and textbooks, be regulated by the Christian spirit, under the direction and maternal supervision of the Church, so that religion may be in very truth the foundation and crown of the youth's entire training. — Pope Pius XI.

Books to perfect the intellect . . .

Brother Romanus, C.S.C.

"Folly is bound up in the heart of a child, and the rod of correction shall drive it away." Disorderly inclinations then must be corrected, good tendencies encouraged . . . and above all the mind must be enlightened and the will strengthened. — Pope Pius XI.

. . . and "jug" to perfect the will

"Where were you yesterday?" asks Brother Sigismund. And Mytnik thinks that that's a very good question

Nimble Fingers . . .

One of the most important of the elements that make up a well-educated man is the ability to think fast and accurately and to coordinate mind and body. In some friendly game, or some gymnastic exercises, the body is trained as well as the mind. In mechanical drawing, as illustrated, the mind as well as the body is used, for who can complete even a simple drawing without taxing all his mental and physical abilities?

. . . and Agile Bodies

. . .The subject of Christian education is man whole and entire, soul united to body in unity of nature, with all his faculties natural and supernatural, such as right reason and Revelation show him to be; man, therefore, fallen from his original estate, but redeemed by Christ and restored to the supernatural condition of adopted son of God. — Pope Pius XI.

"WHAT A LIFE" IS A PLAY SO UNUSUAL THAT TWO PUBLIC PERFORMANCES ARE SCHEDULED

THE CAST: Seated: Stella Kopec, Richard Wysocki, Dorothy Bochula, Robert Yesokietous, Rita Nostek, Jo Anne Wojnarowski, Lawrence Nowak, Mary Butkowski and Patrick Reilly.

Standing: Jerry Drazinski, George Zaucha, Norbert Fujara, Richard Seagroves, Lorraine Satko and Elynor Sierakowska.

CAPACITY AUDIENCES EXPECTED

What a Life, to be presented December 12 and 15, marks a great step forward in Trinity drama. It is a play with IDEAS, quite unlike the frothy comedies of the past few years. There will be plenty of laughs, too, but also a lot more than that.

Everyone connected with production and promotion plan to make this the biggest play Trinity ever had. A great sales campaign has been organized, and hope has been expressed that both nights will be sell-outs.

What a Life has for its leading character Henry Aldrich, popularized in radio drama every Thursday evening at 7:00. The stage play, however, differs in many ways from the program, which is now ten years old.

According to latest reports, rehearsals indicate the play will be superbly acted. The cast, after a lot of hard work, hopes that two large audiences will be on hand to see their performance. Remember the dates: Sunday, Dec. 12, and Wednesday, December 15.

EVENTS

Activities

The true Christian does not renounce the activities of this life, he does not stunt his natural faculties, but he develops and perfects them, by co-ordinating them with the supernatural. He thus ennobles what is merely natural in life and secures for it new strength in the material and temporal order, no less than in the spiritual and eternal. — Pope Pius XI.

. . . Christian education takes in the whole aggregate of human life, physical and spiritual, intellectual and moral, individual, domestic, and social, not with a view of reducing it in any way, but in order to elevate, regulate and perfect it, in accordance with the example and teaching of Christ.

—Pope Pius XI

The Monthly Newspaper

As the newspaper passed into the hands of a new adviser, some interesting changes took place in the school paper. Advertising was solicited and the paper was made available by subscription to the alumni. With this increased revenue, the paper was able to come out seven times (instead of several) during the course of the school year. A triumph in high school journalism was the special "Victory Edition Extra" which, with the co-operation of the printer and the sports staff, was in the hands of the students the week they returned from Christmas vacation, though they had received the Christmas issue only a few school-days before.

THE YEARBOOK

In the years to come, the Class of '49 will be best remembered as the class that revived the yearbook at Trinity. Discontinued during the war, due to the tremendous problems then connected with such a project, the yearbook was a nonentity at Trinity until this year's seniors offered to finance a renewal of the venture. Though we were late in starting, and though there were many financial and editorial obstacles to surmount, we hope as we go to press, that the project will be successful.

The Annual Class Picnic

One of the most pleasant get-togethers of the entire school year is the annual class picnic. Each class assembles and makes an all-day excursion to some distant picnic grounds. Shown here are pictures of the 1947 Junior Class picnic at the Sand Dunes in Northern Indiana.

THE PICTURES: 1. Smile! 2. Tinker to Evers to Chance. 3. Who, me? 4. Cool, clear water. 5. Nature boy. Michalik rushing the season. 6. We put this one in because we couldn't find any better. 7. Man of distinction. 8. Where are all the girls? 9. Movie star and publicity agent.

TRINITY BAND

For the past five years the band has presented an annual concert entitled "The March of Melody." In addition, the band plays for Kiwanis Club programs, pep assemblies, football games and at other schools. An annual parade is included amongst its activities.

PARTIES

Opportunity for participation in social activities among the underclassmen is well provided for at Holy Trinity. A big get-acquainted party is held at the beginning of each year for the freshmen and sophomores. Another very popular form of entertainment is the roller skating party held twice a year. These occasions are always well attended, and will always be remembered by the students as an important part of the good times they had in high school.

FOOTBALL: "The Lean Years"

Looking back to 1945, the year Trinity entered the Catholic League, we find a picture not too encouraging. Due to inexperience the Tigers took it on the chin, and for two years had a record of only two wins, accomplished in the 1946 season, and eighteen losses.

But the 1947 season was a heart-warming year for the Tiger rooters, as it showed that Trinity was now climbing the ladder to the top.

Led by Captain Ted Jarosz and other seniors, the team showed great promise in two pre-season victories over St. Elizabeth and Joliet, and until hit by injuries to key men, looked like a contender for high honors.

Because of these injuries, the league season was the opposite of the pre-season tilts. After losing the first few games, the Tigers finally found life and clawed away two hard-earned wins from De Paul and St. Philip.

The year 1947 also started the ten-year charity series with Weber at Soldiers' Field, for the benefit of St. Mary's Hospital.

The season was closed with a record of four wins and five losses.

TIGERS IN TRAINING AT NOTRE DAME CAMP

Notre Dame Camp, located on the beautiful Bankson Lake in Michigan, is a summer vacation spot for boys, conducted by the Brothers of Holy Cross. When the camp season is over and before school starts, the place is invaded by Tigers, who find there an ideal training spot.

The binding on this book is such that it will last a lifetime, if handled properly in the beginning. EVERY NEW BOOK SHOULDBE OPENED AS FOLLOWS: Place the narrow back of the book on a flat surface--a table or desk top. Open the back cover, bend it down GENTLY to the top of the table. Then run your finger up and down the inside margin several times. Then do likewise with the front cover. After the cover is thus "limbered up" open the book a few pages from the back, let them flop down to the table, and run your finger up and down the inside margin several times. Then take a few pages from the front and do likewise. Keep this up from alternate sides until you get to the middle of the book. In this way, the glue in the binding has been limbered up gradually, instead of being cracked through quick, brittle opening.

Two printing accidents need your attention. On pages 7 and 37 a type space evidently came loose, bobbed up, caught the ink from the rollers, and transferred its impression to the paper. Fortunately, this damage can be corrected in about 40 seconds. Take a razor blade. Hold it straight up and down. By soft, gentle, even, and slow pressure, you can wipe out the black very easily. To restore the smooth finish to the scraped area, use a few strokes of an art gum eraser. These materials available in lib. & study hall.

By another accident in the print shop, our original plans (to print the school song--words and music--on the inside of the covers) had to be changed because the plates for printing the music were lost in the print shop.

The Second Football Banquet was held on the evening of Saturday, Dec. 11, 1948. The banquet had its highlights but it also had its disappointments—such as the untimely injury of Frank Tripucka, which prevented him from speaking at the banquet. This was somewhat offset by the presence of Don Elder, NBC announcer, who turned in a fine job as he handled the Master of Ceremonies spot in the program during the first half of the evening. The banquet had a special significance for the graduating seniors in that they had played a major part in bringing Trinity its best football season up to the present time. An interesting evening was topped off by a movie on the Illinois-Iowa game, narrated by Mr. Ingwerson, line coach of Illinois, who also was the main speaker of the evening.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

During the season of 1949 Intramural Basketball played a great part in Holy Trinity's athletic program. Many of the boys from all the home rooms took part in this great sport. Through the interest in this sport, the tournament turned out to be as exciting as it was successful.

In the summer of 1948 the Tiger nine had little trouble in capturing the first American Legion Baseball Championship for the First District in Cook County. Trinity has always come up with a fair league team and always won a fair percentage of their games, both with Public and Catholic school teams. However, the 1948 trophy indicated the first championship in this sport in almost twenty years. Mr. Henry Brandt is coach of the team.

ADORATION ON FIRST FRIDAY

To meet the weakness of man's fallen nature, God in His Goodness has provided the abundant helps of His grace and the countless means with which He has endowed the Church, the great family of Christ. Therefore the Church is the educational environment most intimately and harmoniously associated with the Christian family. This educational environment of the Church embraces the Sacraments, divinely efficacious means of grace, the sacred ritual, so wonderfully instructive, and the material fabric of her churches, whose liturgy and art have an immense educational value. -- Pope Pius XI.

MISSIONS

All this the Church has been able to do because her mission to educate extends equally to those outside the fold, seeing that all men are called to enter the kingdom of God and reach eternal salvation. Just as today when her Missions scatter schools by the thousands in districts and countries not yet Christian, from the banks of the Ganges to the Yellow River and the great islands and archipelagos of the Pacific Ocean, from the Dark Continent to the Land of Fire and to frozen Alaska, so in every age the Church by her missionaries has educated to Christian life and to civilization the various peoples which now constitute the Christian nations of the civilized world.

THE FINISHED PRODUCT

THE GRADUATE OF A CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Hence the true Christian, product of Christian education, is the supernatural man who thinks, judges and acts constantly and consistently in accordance with right reason illumined by the supernatural light of the example and teaching of Christ: in other words, to use the current term, the true and finished man of character. For it is not every kind of consistency and firmness of conduct based on subjective principles that makes true character, but only constancy in following the eternal principles of justice . . . there cannot be full justice except in giving what is due to God, as the true Christian does.

ANNUAL RETREAT

MARCH 8 - 9 - 10

Holy Trinity took on a changed appearance as for three days the students lifted minds and hearts to God to attend the things that matter most. The every day hustle and bustle was replaced by a calm wave of silence and reverence. During these days the students attended Holy Trinity Church for Confession, Mass and Adoration, and heard conferences skillfully delivered by Father Lawrence Calkins, O.S.M.

Father Calkins devoted every spare moment, outside of Mass and conference, to hearing Confessions and offering direction and advice to the retreatants. Father Calkins is well known for his excellent work in guiding Catholic youth. With men such as Father Calkins to help us, our life-long work of being good citizens of this world in order to merit citizenship in the next has been made easier to attain.

History, Class of 1949

Even as the freshmen entered Holy Trinity in 1945, they were setting a record of enrollment with a total of 251. The first big event in their new life was the election of class officers. Matt Mentzen was elected President, Dick Carrigan Vice-President, Frank Wodziak Secretary, Stanley Tarnowski Treasurer, and Don Bloss Sergeant-at-Arms. This was the first year that Trinity entered competition in the Catholic League. Edward Thomas Koza, who entered Holy Trinity as a freshman in September, 1945, from Holy Trinity Grade School, died only a month after enrolling, on October 4, 1945. May he rest in peace.

1946-47

Brother Stanislaus was replaced as principal by Brother Reginald. Other Brothers to leave were the following: Bro. Viator went to Cathedral High School, Indianapolis, Ind.; Bro. Loyola went to Gilmour Academy, Cleveland, as Assistant Headmaster; Bro. Ambrose went to Cathedral High School, and Bro. Stanislaus to St. Anthony High School, Long Beach. Another new trend was that of an interest in social life which resulted after dancing classes were started. Trinity's football team won its first victory by downing De La Salle and later gained stature by defeating Loyola in league competition. This was followed by a wave of spirit from the student body, and pep rallies were started by individual classes. In the sophomore elections, Bruno Mikrut was elected President, with Carrigan as Vice-President, Marty Lacny as Secretary, Bob Wanucha as Treasurer and Mitch Krauszowski as Sergeant-at-Arms. The play "Our Girls" was such an attraction that it had to be presented on three different days in order to accommodate the demand for patronage. The March of Melody was also a huge success, being presented on two separate evenings.

History, Class of 1949

This year was a great one for sports as Coach Murphy took the boys to camp and worked them for two weeks. A first in the school's history was the invitation to play Weber at Soldier Field for the benefit of St. Mary of Nazareth Hospital. After an improved season in which the team was marked definitely as a power in the league, the first annual football banquet was held on December 6. Chuck Collins of "Seven Mules" fame was the guest speaker. The junior elections brought the following results: President Wodziak, Vice-President Mikrut, Secretary Bloss, Treasurer Mytnik, Sgt.-at-Arms Michalczewski. At the end of the scholastic year Bro. Norbert went to Gibault School for Boys, Terre Haute, Ind., and Bro. Rex was assigned the principal's job at Notre Dame High School, Biloxi, Miss., Bro. Hugh went to Holy Cross College, New Orleans, La. In the world of sports, Bro. Eduardo organized a wrestling team, the first of its kind in the school, and the first Trinity Olympics were held for all the students to participate in. Trinity was represented in the April Cisca Variety Show by cowboy Lou Prochut and a trio composed of Wolowiec, Funk and Novak. Bro. George, for thirty years a member of the Faculty, died May 4 after a long and painful sickness. May he rest in peace.

Edward Kachmarczyk, who entered Holy Trinity in September, 1945, from St. John of God Parish, fell prey to an illness which lasted until his death, April 24, 1948. May he rest in peace.

1948-49

As the students trudged back to school, they found that a few new things have been added. Among these was the addition of Biology, Physical Science and Typing II to the curriculum. Another new trend was that of an interest in politics as the students held a mock election. Although most other polls were inaccurate, ours was true to election returns, the Democrats winning easily. Coach Risily replaced John Murphy as head football coach and got results as Trinity beat Weber for the first time in the annual St. Mary benefit game. This year's play, "What a Life" was presented twice and proved to be all that it was publicized to be. The Fifth March of Melody was a huge success and drew capacity crowds. For the all-important Senior cabinet, Carrigan was chosen President.

The end of the trail . . .

With the school year 1948-49 rapidly drawing to a close, Casimir Gladziewiczienkowski (the average Trinity student) quite naturally dreams dreams of all the wonderful things he will do after that long-awaited last day of school is over. To him, the world is a big, rainbow-like bubble of happiness. Everyone is his friend as he leaves school and bids all a fond farewell.

If one were to return to the school building during the vacation that follows, he would find long, silent corridors, empty, deserted classrooms, and desks that are evenly covered with a fine coat of dust. Yes, the hot, stuffy classrooms that several weeks ago re-echoed with the flipping of pages, the queries of spring-feverish students, and the not always too funny jokes of the teachers, are now vacant.

However, those unoccupied, dust-coated desks will again be filled with eager, knowledge-thirsty boys come next September. This year's freshies, sophs, and juniors will be back after their brief but exciting vacations and will take up where they left off in June.

But what about this year's seniors? Their four years at Holy Trinity are over. They will never again sit in those empty seats. Their formal quest for knowledge, in large part, is over. Their joyful moments, and other not so happy incidents, will be but memories.

So as graduation day draws near we take time out to think about those empty desks that we will no longer fill. We will miss Holy Trinity.

This year's seniors will soon be scattered throughout the city, the country, and perhaps the world. Nevertheless, every real Trinity man will keep in mind those cheerless and crudely-carved desks that will soon be surely too small for him. He may one day see his offspring occupying the very desks where he years ago carved his initials. And no matter how many years nor how many miles may separate him from Holy Trinity, he will always keep his school in a reserved spot down close to his heart.

THE ANNUAL P-TA BINGO FOR SENIORS — Top: A pause for the "birdie." Below: Committee of Arrangements.

ALL THIS, THE SUBSTANCE OF OUR FONDEST MEMORIES—

WAS MADE POSSIBLE BY

OUR PARENTS

"Catholics will never feel, whatever may have been the sacrifices already made, that they have done enough for the support and defense of their schools." — Pope Pius XI.

Mindful of the many great sacrifices made by the parents in giving their boys the best possible education, the faculty hope and pray that parents will be rewarded in seeing their boys remain ever true to the principles they learned at Holy Trinity High School.

"Katolicy nigdy nie będą odczuwać, jakiekolwiek mogły być dotychczas ich ofiary na ołtarzu poświęcenia się, że zrobili dosyć dla utrzymania i obrony szkół swoich." — Pius XI.

Mając na myśli owe liczne i wielkie ofiary rodziców w sprawie możliwie najlepszego wykształcenia swych synów, fakultet szkolny, pełen nadziei, prosi Pana Boga, aby w nagrodę za te poświęcenia się rodzice mogli w przyszłości ucieszyć się widokiem tychże synów, pozostających wiernymi zasadom, które w nich wpajano w Wyższej Szkole Św. Trójcy.

Alumni Directory

Our Catholic institutions, whatever their grade in the educational and scientific world, have no need of apology. The esteem they enjoy, the praise they receive, the learned works which they promote and produce in such abundance, and above all, the men, fully and splendidly equipped, whom they provide for the magistracy, for the professions, for the teaching career, in fact, for every walk of life, more than sufficiently testify in their favor. — Pope Pius XI.

SENIORS—

Remember how, in November, we were all desperately trying to get 16 pages of ads by Christmas? Thanks to the merchants whose ads are listed here, we were able to meet that deadline. These merchants proved they were our friends in need. They helped us get this yearbook. Let us show our appreciation by patronizing them whenever possible.

In September, remember to send in a dollar for the school paper. — B. J.

EXPLANATION OF THE SEAL:

The coat of arms is composed of four devices: the triquetra, the Cross and anchors, the inscribed book, and the shielded eagle, together with the motto, Trinitas Unitas.

The triquetra is one of the most significant of all the symbols of the Holy Trinity. The three equal arcs express the Equality of the Three Divine Persons; their union expresses the Unity of the Three Persons in One God; their interwoven form denotes the Indivisibility, and their continuous form, the Eternity, of the Godhead. The center of the triquetra forms an equilateral triangle, the most ancient of Trinity symbols, and each pair of arcs forms a vesica, the symbol of Divine Glory.

In the background of the triquetra is the Cross and anchors symbol taken from the seal of the Congregation of Holy Cross, whose members founded and administrate the high school. The combination of the Cross and anchors and the triquetra is also symbolic of the apostolate of the Brothers: the Christian instruction (the Cross) of Catholic youth, who are the hope of America (the anchors), through the inspiration of the Holy Trinity (the triquetra).

The American shield imposed upon the Polish eagle is symbolic of the Polish background and traditions of the school, and the ancestry of the majority of the students.

The book with its inscription, God and Country, signifies the service of the faculty and students to God and their fellowmen through Christian education.

The motto, Trinitas Unitas, besides its mystical meaning, Three Persons in One God, applies also to the spirit of union that is characteristic of Holy Trinity High School—the unity of faculty, parents, and students to achieve the glory of God, Country, and Alma Mater.
